

I personally will not do business with anyone who uses the telephone to drum up business. Let the banks use the newspaper, radio or television or the U.S. Mail to advertise their business. KEEP THE WISCONSIN NO CALL LIST JUST AS IT NOW IS. At the very least business should be able to call private numbers only during the hours they are open for business.